The Purebred Morab Horse Association

The Purebred Morab Horse Association will be holding its Tenth Annual PMHA Morab National Horse Show and Futurity on October 27-28, 2007 at the Kentucky Horse Park in Lexington, Kentucky. This is a Class "A" show for both Arabians and Morgans, as well as the National Championship Show for the Morab breed.

This show has grown over the past eight years, and the show bill for 2007 has 158 classes. These include halter, English, western, hunter, saddleseat, and driving classes for Morabs, Morgans and Arabian as well as OPEN classes for all three breeds. Featured are sport horse classes for the Morab, Morgan, Arabian and Half-Arabian with corresponding Championship Classes. There is a wide variety of performance classes for the Morab, Arabian and Morgan and select sport horse classes for the Arabian and Half-Arabian with added Championships. This show offers a wonderful selection of 10 & Under Walk/Trot for the upcoming equine enthusiast. An offering of TBA classes for the Arabian, Half-Arabian and Morgan is also included. The show features the Morab breed with futurity classes, In-Hand classes, Junior and Senior Morab and Overall Morab In-Hand Championships. Those exhibitors who like to show for fun will find many classes for them. The Show concludes with Performance Championships for the Morab, Arabian and the Morgan. High point awards are given to the top Adult Amateur, Junior Exhibitor and Morab. PMHA is a 501 C-3 non-profit organization. Your sponsorship donation is tax-exempt. For information of the tax-exempt status contact the number indicated below.
